

Applicant Name	Activity	Project Summary	Grant Amount Awarded	Budget Funded Through
Hamja Ahsan	Zine Mela: South Asian Journeys in DIY Cultures	Zine fair and exhibition of South Asian and diaspora DIY Cultures: zine makers, indy comic book artists, punk ephemera, graphic design and illustrators, archiving emergent zine fairs across South Asia.	£2,000	SAHM Budget
Roopa Basu	STAMPED! Block Printing in the Borough	A fun community art project celebrating South Asian block printing while bringing residents together to create a vibrant, collaborative artwork that reflects shared heritage and creativity.	£1,935	Nine Elms, Alton & SAHM Budget
Shatha Abumorr	Cultural Community Garden	The Ethnicity Mental Health Improvement Project (EMHIP) South Asian Heritage Month project will transform Tooting Community Garden into a vibrant cultural hub through collaborative art workshops, community engagement, and a celebratory event honouring heritage, creativity, and well-being	£1,500	SAHM Budget
Krishna Isha	Intergenerational Workshop exploring music & storytelling	Free Intergenerational music workshop for South Asian community: Exploring South Asian heritage, music, and personal stories, this free intergenerational workshop creates space for creativity and connection.	£1,700	Nine Elms Budget
Zainab Mahmood	BYOF (Bring Your Own Fabric) Workshops	Ahista Stories and Paaras Abbas are delivering a series of three workshops - natural dye, block printing and embroidery - encouraging upcycling and celebrating heritage South Asian crafts.	£1,334	Nine Elms Budget

Suman Bhuchar Bhuchar Boulevard	Retracing our Footsteps: Bhuchar Boulevard (BB)	Retracing our Footsteps: Bhuchar Boulevard (BB) undertakes to mark SAHM 2025 through the public sharing of Wandsworth's rich South Asian performing arts heritage. BB's proposed event celebrates the tenure of Tara Arts' founder, Jatinder Verma, through excerpts and readings of Tara's prominent works, a visit to the National Theatre Archive, and the launch of Professor Jerri Daboo's book about this pioneering legacy.	£2,000	SAHM Budget
Asma Choudhry	Heritage Harmony:South Asia.s Rich Traditions	Heritage Harmony: South Asia's Rich Traditions" is a cultural initiative celebrating the vibrant heritage of South Asia through traditional attire, art, storytelling, Cultural games and interactive workshops, fostering creativity, community engagement, and cultural appreciation.	£2,000	Alton Budget
Total			£12,469	